This 2-part series from investigative reporter Ben Hall looked at mountain top mining in Tennessee and the growing battle to protect the state's mountains. Our investigation found that the State spent 40-million tax dollars to protect a wildlife area, but now the 74,000 acres taxpayers paid to preserve are open to mountain top mining. We also investigated the environmental record of the largest coal mining company in the state - a company that has been fined by the state and is fighting to dramatically increase mountain top mining.

This story from investigative reporter Ben Hall took a closer look at an audit that says Tennessee needs to do more to protect unwanted animals. After several high profile cases of abuse and neglect at animal shelters across the state, the audit calls for more statewide standards. Our report found the state had no idea how many animal shelters there are or how many animals are euthenized. While other states have oversight and regular inspections, Tennessee requires no inspections or training for animal control workers. It is now up to lawmakers to decide if they are going to make any changes.

This 2-part investigation from Chief Investigative Reporter Phil Williams looked at airplane safety. In this national exclusive, we had video of what can happen inside a plane with faulty wiring and sub-standard insulation. The test videos - most of them obtained from the FAA's files - show that some wiring can virtually explode. Every day hundreds of airliners take flight with flammable insulation and what the FAA itself says is an "unsafe condition". Despite these warnings, there has been no action taken to ensure passenger safety.

This 2-part series from NewsChannel 5 reporter Amy Rao looked at the dangers of texting while driving. An 18-year-old Rutherford County boy died when his car crashed while he was texting his girlfriend. We talked to his family who wanted to warn others not to do the same thing. In fact, Tennessee lawmakers are looking into banning texting while driving. We also put drivers to the test on a closed course to see how they would react while texting. The results were a clear indication that this is a dangerous distraction.

This 3-part investigation from Chief Investigative Reporter Phil Williams looked at the Metro 911 Emergency system. This exclusive report focused on how calls for help were handled. In one case, a woman called 911 in fear for her life from an ex-boyfriend trying to get into her house. The recorded call, however, caught the 911 operator saying he didn't care what happened to her. We found other calls that were just as rude when people are hoping for help. We talked to city officials about the problem. Our story was covered by national organizations such as Fox News and "Good Morning America."

This 2-part series from NewsChannel 5 Meteorologist Charlie Neese examined the various tornado shelters available for your home. With a very active tornado season in Middle Tennessee and the designation of now being part of a "tornado alley," more families are looking for ways to stay safe. We examined different shelter possibilities for homes and even mobile homes.

A 2-part follow-up to our exclusive investigation from Chief Investigative Reporter Phil Williams on the Metro 911 Emergency center. This report was to announce that Nashville's Mayor Karl Dean had replaced the Interim Director at the 911 Office following our investigation. We also talked with Metro Police Chief Ronal Serpas who admitted he was mad after seeing what we uncovered. Both said Nashville's citizens need to feel safe and know they can call for help when they need it.

This follow-up to a NewsChannel 5 Investigation into abuse on Metro Special Education buses looked into what former Metro Schools Director Pedro Garcia had to say about it. In the tape, obtained by Chief Investigative Reporter Phil Williams, Garcia said he did not think it was his job to alert the parents to what was going on inside these buses. We showed the tape to some Metro parents who were appalled at his lack of concern for the safety of their children.

Consumer Investigative Reporter Jennifer Kraus focused on grocery store inspections. We found local grocery stores that should be clean that have had repeated problems. In our hidden camera investigation we found stores with moldy food items and many other questionable products on their shelves. Even worse, if the store fails inspection, chances are consumers will never know it because grocery stores are not required to post inspection scores. We educated viewers that they could check grocery inspection scores on a state website.

This investigation from Consumer Investigative Reporter Jennifer Kraus looked at a scam hitting local property owners. An Illinois-based company called The National Deed Service is sending letters, urging homeowners to pay $59.50 for a certified copy of their deed. Our investigation found that you really do not need a copy of your deed. If you wanted one, you could get a copy from the state's Register of Deeds office for only two dollars. Our findings prompted local officials to warn homeowners about the offer and the company.

It is the latest sign of the tough economic time, but as this story warned viewers, it could lead to major trouble in the future. Not only will it cost you in federal income tax, but you are also likely to be hit with penalties for withdrawing the money early from your retirement plan.
5/19/08 10:00 PM	NewsChannel 5 REPORT FOCUS 5 REPORT 4 minutes	This investigation from Consumer Investigative Reporter Jennifer Kraus looked at auto warranties. Mailings to local consumers offered extended warranties -only to find that when their car needed repairs, the "warranty" was worth nothing. The Attorney General in another state has already launched a nationwide investigation into the company selling these warranties, saying he hoped to "stop this scam". Tennessee's Attorney General is not making a move on this yet, but the state's Consumer Affairs office is calling on anyone who has problems to file a complaint.

"Sovereign Wealth Funds" - an interview with Gao Xiqing, President of China Investment Corporation, China's government-controlled $200-billion sovereign wealth fund. Only five months old, highly secretive, and the fifth largest fund in the world, Xiqing discusses its investment philosophy and addresses concerns that China will try to use the fund to control the companies and countries it invests in. Includes interviews with economist Peter Navarro and former Treasury Secretary Lawrence Summers. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shachar Bar-On)

"The Path To War" - an interview with Douglas Feith, former Undersecretary of Defense for Policy and the number three man at the Pentagon. One of the main architects of the Iraq War, he was intimately involved in both pre-war strategy and post-war planning and says the attack on Iraq was more a defensive move against possible future threats from Saddam Hussein than a retaliation for the 9/11 attacks. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine, Michael Rosenbaum)

"A Bigger Leap For Mankind" - With the Space Shuttle program ending soon, NASA is planning to return men to the moon in preparation for a manned flight to Mars. Among those interviewed include Dr. Rick Gilbrech, NASA's exploration chief; Dr. Mike Griffin, NASA's director; Steve Squyres, principal investigator for the Mars rovers Spirit and Opportunity; and Congressman Barney Frank (D-MA), who tried to halt the Mars program. - 04/20/08      "Ambush In Afghanistan" - A report on the June 2006 battle between U.S. Army Special Forces and Taliban fighters near Kandahar, Afghanistan. On a mission to locate a Taliban commander, the Green Berets and other American and Afghan soldiers were ambushed by a large number of well-armed and highly disciplined Taliban fighters. Badly outnumbered, they managed to defeat the enemy forces and make it back to their patrol base, but stress that their story is also a wake-up call to the growing strength of the enemy in Afghanistan. (C: Lara Logan - P: Tom Anderson / Max McClellan / Jenny Dubin)
- "The Bypass Effect" - A report on the positive effects of gastric bypass surgery -- an operation performed primarily to reduce weight in the obese-- on type 2 diabetes, sleep apnea, high blood pressure, coronary artery disease, and even cancer. Among those interviewed are Dr. Neil Hutcher, a bariatric surgeon; Italian surgeon Dr. Francesco Rubino; and Dr. Eugenia Calle, an epidemiologist at the American Cancer Society. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shachar Bar-On)
- "The Lost Leonardo" - A profile of Italian art detective Maurizio Seracini and his quest to find the lost Leonardo DaVinci mural, "The Battle of Anghiari". Considered to be the masterpiece of the Renaissance, it was commissioned to celebrate a victory by Florence over Milan. Assumed destroyed, Seracini believes that it lies protected between two walls in the Palazzo Vecchio -- the town hall of Florence, Italy -- right where it's always been for 500 years. (C: Morley Safer - P: David Browning)
- Andy Rooney topic: "Andy's "Campaign" Against Flight Delays" - Andy tackles the issue of chronically delayed flights
- 04/27/08      "The IAF" - a report on the Israeli Air Force, the best in the Middle East, and the threats Israel faces -- not only from crude homemade rockets launched from Gaza by Islamic militants, but from Iran's nuclear program. Among those interviewed are Major General Eliezer Shkedy, commander of the Israeli Air Force, and Colonel Ziv Levy. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael H. Gavshon / Drew Magratten)
- "Justice Scalia" - an interview and profile of Supreme Court Justice Antonin Scalia. Also includes comments by his colleague, Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg; his wife, Maureen Scalia; and Bryan Garner, co-author with Scalia of a new book, "Making Your Case: The Art of Persuading Judges". 48 HOURS MYSTERY

04/05/08           PREEMPTION

04/12/08           48 HOURS SPECIAL PRESENTATION: "The Lord's Boot Camp" (8:00-9:00p) - In the summer of 2007, Tabitha Taylor, Nicole Scrivener and Valerie Smith were among the 700 American teenagers who attended a two-week session at The Lord's Boot Camp, a no-frills training camp in central Florida where the participants face physical and mental challenges as they prepare to embark on Christian evangelical missions in the U.S. and Africa. The cameras follow each of the three girls as they individually experience and express their reactions to their training, their subsequent missions in Africa or Indiana, and their eventual return home. Commentary is given by: Tabitha Taylor, of Bellwood, PA; Nicole Scrivener, of Tallahassee, FLA; Valerie Smith, of Las Vegas, NV; Bob Bland, founder, The Lord's Camp; Linda Maher, pre-teen coordinator, The Lord's Camp; Doug Peterson, director of the Zambia Mission, Ndola, Zambia, Africa. (Executive Producer: Susan Zirinsky. Producers: Steven Reiner, Gregory F. McLaughlin)

04/12/08           48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Long Way From Home" (10:00-11:00p) - A report on the strange case of Amanda Know, a 20-year-old honors student who had gone to Perugia, Italy, to study abroad...only to be arrested in connection with the November 2007, murder of her roommate Meredith Kercher, a fellow exchange student from England. Initially, Amanda and her boyfriend Raffaele Sollecito aroused suspicion with the police because of their strange behavior. Days after the murder, Amanda, Raffaele and her employer, Patrick Lumumba (who Amanda named as the murderer) were arrested after Amanda signed a statement following intense police interrogation. Italian Police have developed a theory: Kercher was murdered after refusing to join Amanda, Rafael and Patrick in four-way sex. Soon, the Italian and British press corps were all over the story. Italian police eventually released Lumumba because he had an airtight alibi for the night of the murder: he was at his bar. The case took another dramatic turn when police found a fingerprint that didn't match any of the suspects, but did match Rudy Guide, a fixture - and often a nuisance - on the local bar scene. After a two-week European manhunt, Guide was tracked down in Central Germany and returned to Perugia. After months of silence, he now blames Amanda and her boyfriend for the murder. 48 HOURS brought Chicago private investigator Paul Ciolino into the case, and he believes Amanda is being railroaded: he says that everything in the case points to Rudy Guide. The lead investigator, Edgardo Giobb, has told 48 HOURS that the case against all three suspects is solid and that Rudy didn't act alone. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 04/15/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Letter" - On December 3, 1998, police in Pleasant Prairie, Wisconsin were called to the home of Mark and Julie Jensen. Mark said he had found his wife dead in her bed. Initially, police thought suicide was a strong possibility. But a letter written by Julie before her death expressed her suspicion that Mark might kill her. A series of toxicology tests revealed in Julie's stomach a small amount of ethylene glycol, the main ingredient in antifreeze. In March 2002, Mark was arrested and charged with the first degree murder of his wife. Initially, the judge would not allow Julie's letter to be introduced as evidence in the trial. The prosecutor appealed this decision, ultimately to the Wisconsin Supreme Court. Five years passed; the appeal was successful. In January 2008, Mark went on trial Julie's murder. He was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison without possibility of parole. Includes interviews with: Julie Jensen's brothers Patrick, Paul, Mike and Larry Griffin; Florence and Dan Jensen, Mark's parents; Theresa DeFazio, teacher of one of Julie's sons; Ted and Margaret Wojt, friends of Julie Jensen; Robert Jambois, former Kenosha County District Attorney, now special prosecutor; Angie Gabrielle, Assistant District Attorney; Dr. Mary Mainland, Kenosha County medical examiner; Ed Klug, business associate of Mark Jensen; Aaron Dillard, prosecution witness. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Peter Henderson, Linda Martin)
- 04/19/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Dream Killer" (9:00-10:00p) - Kent Heitholt, the popular sports editor of The Daily Tribune in Columbus, Missouri was found bludgeoned and strangled near his car on Halloween night 2001. Two years later, 19-year-old Charles "Chuck" Erickson told a friend that he had a dream about his involvement in the crime. Although his memory of events was hazy, Erickson told police about events leading up to the murder and implicated his high school friend Ryan Ferguson. He explained that he and Ferguson were out drinking the night of the murder and, when they ran out of money, decided to rob someone. When the two young men approached Heitholt, things got out of hand. Both Erickson and Ferguson were taken into custody and charged with murder. Four years after Heitholt's death, Ferguson, who claimed innocence, was tried for murder. The state's star witness was his former friend, Erickson, who admitted his involvement in the crime but claimed that Ferguson was the instigator. Found guilty of second-degree murder and first-degree robbery and Ryan Ferguson was sentenced to 40 years in prison. He will be eligible for parole in 2040. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Deadline For Justice" (10:00-11:00p) - A report on the cold cases of two young women, both new to the areas where they lived, who were both raped and murdered. In the first case, in 2002, young television reporter Jennifer Servo was found murdered weeks after moving to Abilene, Texas to begin a new job at KRBC-TV. Co-workers suspected an ex-boyfriend, Ralph Sepulveda, who had moved to Texas with her, but with whom she had recently broken up. Investigators also suspected a fellow reporter, Brian Travers, who had recently begun a romantic relationship with Jennifer. In the five years since the murder, police have not been able to make an arrest but vow not to give up until the case is solved. In the second case, Patty Scoville moved to Vermont in September 1991 to become a children's ski instructor, but just three weeks later, she disappeared and was found raped and murdered on a local scenic hiking trail. The investigation turned up more than 20 suspects: men Patty knew or those who had been in the park that day. The best evidence in solving the murder would be DNA, but Vermont was one of the last states to have a DNA data base. After seven years of lobbying by her parents, the Vermont DNA database was enacted into law. Seven additional years after it was established, and fourteen years after the murder the case was solved: Howard Godfrey, a 59-year-old window installer, was charged and found guilty. (C: Harold Dow - P: Josh Gelman, Shoshanah Wolfson)

04/26/08

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Last Take" - an investigation into the unsolved 1977 murder of actress Christa Helm, who was found stabbed and bludgeoned outside her agent's home in West Hollywood, California. Police at first thought her murder might be connected to the sensational killing of actor Sal Mineo, murdered exactly one year before in the same neighborhood. Detectives also found out about her infamous "love diary" -- but it had vanished. The diary was not the only way she had kept track of her lovers; there were tape recordings of her sexcapades with her celebrity boyfriends, but those tapes also disappeared. The hunt for the tapes lead to actor Tony Sirico (now best known as 'Paulie Walnuts' on "The Sopranos"), who had been sent by Helm's friends to remove them from her residence. In 2006, when investigators finally spoke to Sirico, he was less than cooperative, but the missing items turned up in the possession of Lennie Barin, Helm's closest friend. Now 31 years into the case, detectives have discovered a long string of boyfriends and girlfriends of Christa's, and suspect that jealousy may have been the motive in her murder. However, recent information has led back to the Sal Mineo connection, and his murderer, Lionel Williams, who served 12 years for the crime. After sifting through all the drama of Christa's life, could the detectives discover that she was simply the victim of a random street robbery at the hand of a career criminal? Her daughter hopes that the murder will be solved, whatever the reason. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Chuck Stevenson, Paul F. Ryan)

48 HOURS MYSTERY

05/03/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Caught In the Crossfire" (9:00-11:00p) - an expanded and updated report (OAD: 02/24/07; updated 06/12/07) about Charla and Darren Mack of Reno, Nevada, a married, childless couple who were swingers who liked to attend group sex parties. After their daughter Erika was born, Charla was no longer interested in swinging and their marriage began to crumble. Charla filed for divorce. Family court Judge Chuck Weller, ordered Darren to pay Charla a lump sum of $480,000 and, $10,000 a month in spousal support. On June 12, 2006, a bullet was fired through the window of Judge Weller's chambers, spraying him with shrapnel. Shortly afterwards, police found Charla's dead body at Darren's condo. Darren had fled to Mexico. On June 22, he turned himself in to the police and was brought back to the U.S. He was charged with the murder of his wife and the attempted murder of Judge Weller. More than a year later, the trial began. The defense tried a unique strategy: self-defense in the murder of Charla and insanity for the attempted murder of Judge Weller, citing that Weller was biased towards women and was having an affair with Charla Mack. When it came time for the defense's turn, instead of taking the stand, Darren took a deal, admitting to Charla's murder, and admitting there was enough evidence to find him guilty in the attempted murder of Judge Weller. Then, three weeks later, he withdrew his guilty plea and demanded a new trial, alleging his attorneys were in it just for the money. A new trial began, and by calling his former lawyers to the stand, Darren waived his right to attorney-client privilege; the damning revelations began. Mack took the stand, insisted he acted in self-defense and was coerced and confused when he took the plea bargain. The judge ruled against Darren's motion to withdraw the plea and he was sentenced to at least 36 years for his crimes. He still insists he acted in self-defense. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Mary Noonan Robichaux, Marc Goldbaum, Lourdes Aguiar)

05/10/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Preacher's Wife" - In April 2006, Matt Baker, a pastor from Waco, Texas, returned home to find his wife Kari unconscious, with an empty bottle of Unisom and a suicide note beside her. Paramedics arrived within minutes, but it was too late. Based on the note, the empty bottle of sleeping pills, and the fact that Kari was described as still struggling with the loss of her daughter Cassidy seven years ago, police ruled it a suicide. In a county with no medical examiner, police described the case over the phone to a justice of the peace, who determined that no autopsy was needed. Kari's parents, Jim and Linda Dulin, had no choice but to believe Matt. However, Linda's sisters, Nancy, Kay, and Jennifer, and niece Lindsey believed otherwise. Dubbed "Charlie's Angels", they began their own investigation. After uncovering a possible motive, Linda hired Bill Johnston, a dogged former federal prosecutor, had her daughter's body exhumed and autopsied, and filed a wrongful death suit against Matt. Five months after Kari's death, the justice of the peace declared that her death was no longer classified as a suicide and police subsequently arrested and charged Matt with murder. Believing Matt would be tried in criminal court, Linda dropped her wrongful death suit. After six months, the district attorney still hadn't taken Matt's case to a grand jury -- a requirement under Texas law. Linda eventually refiled the wrongful death suit, shortly before attorney Guy James Gray filed a successful motion to dismiss Matt's criminal case, as a grand jury indictment had not been returned within 180 days. Matt Baker is no longer charged with any crime, though the district attorney continues to investigate and could refile criminal charges. There is no statute of limitations for murder. 05/17/08

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Point Blank" - On October 15, 2003, police were called to the Brownsville, Texas, home of Scott and Traci Rhode. Inside, in the couple's bed, lay Scott with a gunshot wound to the head. Traci told police that she rose early, went for a walk, took a shower, and then heard a moaning sound. It was then that she discovered her husband was wounded. Scott was still alive, but later died at the hospital. Traci maintained Scott shot himself, distraught over their troubled marriage and portrayed him to police as a man who was extremely jealous -- so afraid of losing his wife, that he moved the family five times in thirteen years. It wasn't until the move to Brownsville, that Traci met someone -- a co-worker named Sean Michaels. Authorities used that information, bloodstain evidence and the fact that Scott had met with a divorce lawyer and was prepared to take custody of the children, as a motive. She was arrested for murder on August 11th, 2005 - what would have been her 15th wedding anniversary. Four years after Scott's death, Traci went on trial. The prosecution maintained that her relationship with Sean, and Scott's threat of taking the children, left Traci with the notion that she had to be free of her husband. To prove her guilt, the prosecution showed that the holster and gun fit neatly into the bloodstain on the piece of carpet and maintained that Traci dropped the gun when she shot Scott. However, the defense attorney argued that the evidence was tainted in the hours after the shooting, as it was an emergency medical scene before it was a crime scene -- and had pictures he believed cast serious doubts on the prosecution's perfect fit. The jury found Traci guilty. In Texas, the defense has the option of letting the jurors decide the punishment as well as the verdict, and her attorney opted for a jury sentence. For the second phase of testimony and for the first time, Traci took the stand, as did her two oldest sons. The prosecution asked for sixty years, but the jury sentenced her to a fine of $10,000 and ten years probation. The jury's decision was legal and binding and the state's case against Traci Rhode was over. Traci Rhode continues to maintain her innocence and has decided to take the first steps to file an appeal. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Puppet Master" - A report on the marriage of Heather and Ron Samuels, who, even after divorcing, were involved in a bitter custody battle. In October 1997, newlyweds Heather and John Grossman were shot at while driving. John survived the shooting but a bullet severed Heather's spinal cord, leaving her a quadriplegic. Heather was immediately certain that ex-husband Ron was involved in the crime, as he had once threatened to make her pay for leaving him. Investigators were able to track down three men who they believed were involved in the assault: Hugh Estess, the car owner; Eddie Stafford, the driver, and Roger Runyon, the shooter. Also implicated was Geoff Pollock, who was present at meetings when the crime was discussed. Ron Samuels was named as the man behind the crime - the puppet master. In exchange for complete immunity, police got the co-conspirators to acknowledge Samuels' lead role in the crime. Before Samuels could be arrested, he fled to Mexico. He ran afoul of the law there when police found six kilos of cocaine in his car. He was imprisoned and, five years later, still proclaiming his innocence, he was extradited to the U.S. to stand trial for the attempted murders. He was found guilty of all charges and sentenced to life in prison for the attempted murders, plus an additional 120 years for the other charges. The court ordered Samuels to pay Heather restitution, but he claims that he's broke. Investigators are tracking any remaining assets. He is planning to appeal his conviction. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

05/27/08

48 HOURS Special Presentation: Polygamy: A World Apart - a wide ranging report on polygamy, primarily focusing on the polygamous FLDS (Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints), which broke with the Mormon Church decades ago and believes that polygamy is the path to heaven. The FLDS recently found itself in the spotlight after more than 460 children were removed from their compound -- the "Yearning for Zion" ranch, in Eldorado, Texas -- due to abuse claims. Separated from their parents, they have been scattered across the state in foster homes. Featured are: (1) "The Highest Authority" - Peter Van Sant interviews neighbors of the compound and Willie Jessop, a member of the FLDS and point man in the church's fight with Texas; (2) "Escape" - Erin Moriarty interviews Laura Chapman, first featured on 48 HOURS in "A House Divided" (OAD: 11/18/99), who escaped the FLDS community and as a child advocate, has helped other girls leave; (3) "The Godfather" - Susan Spencer reports on FLDS practices and on their self-proclaimed prophet, Warren Jeffs, who despite being in prison as an accomplice to the rape of a minor, continues to lead the sect; (4) "Bold & Beautiful" - Troy Roberts reports on the modern face of polygamy, where one husband with three wives and 22 children, live in a suburb of Salt Lake City; (5) "Broken Ties" - Seth Doane reports on the young boys who have been excised from the FLDS due to their refusal to conform to their religion's unbending social rules, and their struggle in the outside world; (6) "The Reunion" - Erin Moriarty interviews Sarah, one of the girls who escaped in 1999 thanks to Laura Chapman, and learns of how the sect retaliated against her family; Moriarty is present for a reunion between Laura and Sarah. (C: Peter Van Sant, Erin Moriarty, Susan Spencer, Troy Roberts, Seth Doane - P: Douglas Longhini, Ira Sutow, Joe Halderman, Paul Ryan, Jay Young, Chris Young, Neil Katz, Deborah Grau, Jamie Stolz, Sarah Rodriguez, Patti Aronofsky, Peter Henderson and Josh Gelman)

48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 06/03/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Betrayal" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the September 3, 2006 disappearance of Nina Reiser, a resident of Oakland, California. Nina, a mother of two, was separated from her husband, computer whiz Hans Reiser, whom she met through a dating service in Russia. Embroiled in a nasty custody fight, Nina dropped her two children off at their father's house on Labor Day weekend and mysteriously vanished in the hours that followed. Her body has never been found. Friends tried calling Nina on her cell phone, but when Nina didn't pick her two children up from school, best friend Ellen Doren called police to file a missing person's report. With police standing by, Ellen called Hans and informed him that she had his children and that Nina was missing. When asked if he knew anything about her disappearance, Hans replied that he wanted to speak to his lawyers. With biological trace evidence pointing directly at Hans Reiser, as well as his erratic behavior, Hans is arraigned on murder charges five weeks after Nina's disappearance. But just when all of the evidence is pointing directly at Hans, Sean Sturgeon, Hans' ex-friend and Nina's ex-lover confessed to the district attorney that he had killed several people. Police investigated Sean and looked into his incredible confession, but without credible evidence, he cannot be charged with a crime. A year after Nina's disappearance, Hans Reiser went on trial for the murder of Nina Reiser. Prosecutors used blood evidence, as well as Hans' own words against him. The defense portrayed Nina as a conniving Russian bride who was looking for a free ride to America and that she planned her disappearance. Rory Reiser, just off the plane from Russia, took the stand against his father and testified against him. After three days of deliberation, the jury found Hans Reiser guilty of first degree murder and he's facing 25 years to life. There are reports he may lead police to Nina's body in exchange for a lesser sentence. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Paul LaRosa, Gayane Keshishyan, Allen Alter)
- 06/07/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Death of a Dream" - a follow-up to "The Last Dance", OAD: 05/06/06. In 2002, Catherine Woods, an aspiring dancer, left Ohio at age 17 and went to New York in search of fame and fortune, but ended up becoming a stripper to pay the rent. While in New York, she became involved with fitness instructor Paul Cortez, who, at first, was unaware of her exotic dancing career, while continuing to live with her ex-boyfriend David Haughn. On Sunday of the 2005 Thanksgiving weekend, Catherine was savagely murdered. The two men became suspects in her murder and it was then that her exotic dancing career came to light to the police and to her family. Police concluded that Paul Cortez, due to his jealous nature, was the prime suspect. He was arrested and ultimately convicted of Catherine's murder. He was sentenced to 25 years to life. Attorney Nathan Dershowitz is planning an appeal, claiming hair and other forensic evidence was never thoroughly tested. Included are interviews with David Haughn; Paul Cortez and his mother, Yvette Cortez; and Catherine's parents, Jon and Donna Woods. 48 HOURS VANISHED: "The Secret Life Of Paige Birgfeld" (9:00-10:00p) - A report on the June 28, 2007 disappearance of Paige Birgfeld, twice-divorced mother of three and a resident of Grand Junction, Colorado and the subsequent double-life uncovered by investigators following her disappearance. Following her 2006 divorce, Paige became the primary caregiver to her children and was described as such a devoted mother that the Mesa County Sheriff's Department was convinced she would never have left on her own accord. As friends and family searched for her; her car was found abandoned and on fire in an empty lot. Her first husband, Ron Beigler became the focus of the investigation, when it was learned that the two had been on a date the day of her disappearance, but Paige's friends and family were far more suspicious of the children's father, Rob Dixon, as she had a troubled history with him. After a thorough inquiry, both men had solid alibis. As the investigation continued, it was discovered that Paige was also known as Carrie, a high-priced escort. Her family suspected she had money issues. Investigators then began to believe Paige was murdered by one of her clients. Using her cell phone records, police began carefully looking at all of her clients and eventually honed in on one man, Lester Ralph Jones, an ex-con who had served time for kidnapping and assault. Authorities searched his home, but will not discuss what evidence they uncovered. Search dogs led investigators from Paige's car to an RV shop where Jones worked as a mechanic. Although authorities have zeroed in on Lester Ralph Jones, no charges have been filed and he denies any involvement. The lack of a body, coupled with Paige's secret life, has made it that much harder to prove anything beyond a reasonable doubt. Her friends and family continue their search. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Girl Next Door" (2) (8:00-9:00p) - a follow-up to one of the two stories included in "The Girl Next Door" (OAD: 01/07/06). In that report, Detective Scott Dudek of the Alameda County (CA) Sheriff's Office was attempting to establish the identity of a teenage girl whose body was found on May 1, 2003 in a trash bag left behind a restaurant in Castro Valley, California. Forensic sculptor Gloria Nusse created a reconstruction of the girl's face, based on nothing but her skull. After the initial 2006 report on 48 HOURS MYSTERY, a viewer called to say that the victim looked like a young girl who had been seen around Castro Valley with Miguel Castaneda, who had worked at the restaurant where the body was dumped. He had disappeared, but police received a tip that the girl and the man she had been seen with might have been from the same hometown in Mexico. Dudek and his team then went to Yahualica, Mexico. There they extensively publicized their search and handed out many fliers. A woman whose daughter was missing came forward, and a DNA sample would later confirm that she was the mother of the now-identified victim: Yesenia Nungaray. Yesenia was given a funeral in her hometown. The search for Miguel Castaneda continues. (C: Harold Dow - P: Clare Friedland) (OAD: 12/15/07)

- 06/21/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "In Too Deep" - An account of the investigation into the August 2005 murder and mutilation of 21-year-old Jennifer Cave in Austin, Texas, in the apartment of her friend Colton Pitonyak. Pitonyak was tried for the murder, found guilty and sentenced to 55 years. Laura Hall, Pitonyak's girlfriend, admitted that she had gone to his apartment, at his request, right after the murder -- but claims that she did not know that she was going to be confronted there with a dead body in the bathtub. She then -- out of fear for her own life, she says -- drove Pitonyak, at his insistence, to Mexico. After their arrest in Mexico, Hall was interrogated, charged with hindering the apprehension of Pitonyak. In his testimony at his own trial, Pitonyak implied that Hall took part in the dismemberment of Jennifer Cave's body after her death. The prosecution afterwards came up with witnesses who said that Laura told them that she was involved in the dismemberment. Put on trial for that, and for helping Pitonyak escape, she was found guilty and sentenced to five years in prison. She is appealing her conviction. Includes interviews with: Laura Hall; Sharon and Jim Cave, Jennifer's parents; Bill Bishop, Travis County prosecutor; Loren and Carol Hall, Laura's parents; Joe James Sawyer, Laura Hall's attorney (C: Maureen Maher - P: Chuck Stevenson, Jenna Jackson) (OAD: 01/22/08)
- 06/24/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Time to Kill" (9:00-10:00p) - A report on the September 12, 2001 disappearance of Michele Harris, a resident of Tioga County, New York. Michele, a mother of four, was involved in a bitter divorce with her husband, Cal Harris. He claimed she did not return home on the evening of September 11, 2001; her empty van was discovered at the end of their driveway the next morning. Cal denied any involvement and when no evidence was found during a search of the Harris home, he suggested to investigators that they take a closer look at Michele's personal life. Investigators uncovered that Michele was involved with two different men, both of whom had seen Michele the night she disappeared. Two days after the initial search, a forensic specialist was sent to the Harris home and found tiny specks of blood on a kitchen doorway, something that had been overlooked during the initial investigation. With the discovery of a possible crime scene, as well as Cal's refusal to take a polygraph, focus was placed on Cal, who began a relationship with a former girlfriend just eighteen days after Michele's disappearance. On September 30, 2005, Cal Harris was arrested and charged with murder. The trial began on May 21, 2007 and ultimately, he was found guilty of second degree murder. Just days before Cal Harris was to be sentenced, a new witness came forward and claimed to have driven past the Harris driveway around dawn on September 12, 2001 and had seen a man and a woman, who appeared to be arguing. According to this new eyewitness, the woman resembled Michele, but the man did not look like Cal. With this new information, the judge threw out Cal's conviction for the murder of his wife and ordered a new trial. It will be at least a year before Cal Harris is tried again. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

06/28/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Sugar Land Conspiracy" - On December 10, 2003, the Whitaker family -- Kent, his wife Tricia, and their two sons, Bart and Kevin -- returned to their Sugar Land, Texas home from dinner at a restaurant. Upon entering the house, Kevin and his mother were fatally shot by a gunman inside the house. Kent and Bart were each shot in the shoulder. Police investigation revealed that the murders had been planned by Bart Whitaker, who had enlisted friends Steven Champagne and Chris Brashear to carry out the plot and had intended being shot himself as part of the scenario. Among those interviewed are: Kent Whitaker, who says he has forgiven his son; Marshall Slot, detective, Sugar Land Police Department; Jeff Strange and Fred Felcman, Fort Bend County prosecutors; Also includes: interviews with residents of Cerralvo, Mexico, who became acquainted with Bart Whitaker after he fled there and assumed the name 'Rudy Rios'; comments from other friends of Bart Whitaker who had previously been approached by him to help murder his family; and comments from several members of the jury who convicted Whitaker of murder and sentenced him to death. Postscripts: Chris Brashear, the trigger man, pled guilty to murder. He's eligible for parole in 30 years. Getaway driver Steven Champagne received 15 years in exchange for his testimony against Bart Whitaker. Friends involved in earlier plots against the Whitaker family were all granted immunity and are free. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Jay Young) (OAD: 10/20/07)

CBS RELIGION SPECIAL

06/08/08      "Choosing to Forgive" - a presentation and discussion on the idea of forgiveness from both a religious and scientific point of view. In recent years, the subject has interested psychologists and is studied as a potentially effective means by which individuals may be able to get past wrongs and injustices done against them. The broadcast features Dr. Robert Enright, author and professor of educational psychology at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, who has championed the cause of forgiveness therapy as a scientific tool. In consultation with his wife, Dr. Jeanette Knutson Enright, they have introduced forgiveness education in the curricula of elementary schools (the first being Belfast, Northern Ireland and then Milwaukee and Madison, Wisconsin), as a way of training children to cope peacefully with stress and challenge. Also included in the broadcast are interviews with a variety of individuals who have succeeded in getting on with their lives after terrifying experiences and include those who have done so through an act of faith, and others who have had therapy. Those interviewed include: Lynn McGuinn and Talat Hamdani, who lost loved ones in the 9/11 attacks on the World Trade Center; Eric Wurzel, whose mother deserted him as a child, and who became addicted to drugs and alcohol for 30 years -- he was able to forgive himself and his family; Reverend Walt Everett, whose son was murdered in 1987 and over time, befriended the killer -- the two have appeared together to tell their stories and speak about forgiveness; Ada Wolf, whose son was murdered by an off-duty airman in 1965 -- she grew over time to forgive and admire the killer; and Grace Roidt, who suffered for more than 30 years before talking to forgiveness therapists about her dysfunctional family and an older brother who raped her. Grace was able to get past the crimes of her youth with the help of Dr. Suzanne Freedman, an associate professor at the University of Northern Iowa. Produced in consultation with: The National Council of Churches; The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops; The Islamic Society of North America; The Union for Reform Judaism; and The New York Board of Rabbis. Care Bears are a group of funny, colorful bears, each with a special way of caring and a belly badge, which unleashes that bear's special caring power. The bears use their caring hearts and their belly badges to help each other and to thwart the evil plots of Grizzle, a bad bear with his own flying lair. Each Care Bears episode is designed to foster children's "emotional intelligence," defined by psychologist Daniel Goleman and other researchers as skill in five areas: knowing one's emotions; managing one's emotions; motivating oneself; recognizing emotions in others; and handling relationships. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

CAKE is a live-action show-within-a-show about a teenage girl by the name of Cake, who, with the help of three friends, produces a cable access show. The series is designed to provide the viewers with two integrated levels of educational and informational experiences. On one level, each episode provides actual instruction regarding specific activities, with hands-on examples related to the design and use of various fabrics, the making of clothes, the crafting of useful home, school, play, and household items, and other forms of creative expression. The other level in the episode provides an opportunity for the viewers to learn about social and emotional themes such as the value of honesty, the importance of personal worth and self-esteem, the meaning of friendship, the value of having a healthy life-style, and other prosocial concepts that are developmentally appropriate for this age-group. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming
SUSHI PACK is an animated series featuring an unlikely group of superheroes consisting of four small pieces of Sushi, and a tube of mustard. Through an accident involving an irradiation process, these characters are brought to life, and dedicate themselves to fighting crime, injustice, and helping those in need. The themes integrated into the episodes of SUSHI PACK are associated with the teaching of certain positive social behaviors and skills to children. The major educational objectives of the program are to have young viewers learn some important life-lessons related to such traits as loyalty, honesty, and self-confidence, and such behaviors as teamwork problem-solving and cooperation. The program seeks to help children understand that these are every day pro-social attitudes and behaviors that can be modeled and used by them at home and among their friends. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming
DINO SQUAD is an animated program focusing on a group of five ordinary, but diverse teenagers, who, through an unusual accident, become contaminated with a substance that allows them to morph from humans into various species of dinosaurs. Their science teacher, with full knowledge of their parents and with a few special abilities of her own, becomes their mentor. Her tasks are to help them maneuver through the experiences of the high school years, with its social, emotional, educational, recreational, and teenage angst, and to guide them as they stand up for justice against the forces of evil. Each episode draws on a set of planned educational and informational themes related to specific pro-social concepts, life-lessons, and/or selected groups of facts drawn from a variety of fields of study. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Non-Core Educational and Informational Programming

5. Complete the following for each program that you aired during the past three months that is specifically designed to meet the educational and informational needs of children ages 16 and under, but does not meet one or more elements of the definition of Core Programming. See 47 C.F.R. §73.671. Complete chart below for each additional such educational and informational program.

[There are no analog non-core program reports.]

Sponsored Core Programming

6. List Core Programs, if any, aired by other analog stations that are sponsored by the Licensee and that meet the criteria set forth in 47 C.F.R. §73.671. Also indicate whether the amount of total Core Programming broadcast by another station increased.

[There are no analog sponsored core program broadcast reports.]

[There are no analog sponsored core program detail reports.]

Digital Core Programming

7. (a) State the average number of hours of Core Programming per week broadcast by the station on its main program stream.
- (b) Did the Licensee broadcast on its main digital program stream the same Children's Core Programming provided on its analog channel?
- (c) If Yes to 7(b), the Licensee certifies that the representations and children's program information provided with respect to its analog channel apply equally with respect to its main digital program stream.
- If No to 7(c), submit as an Exhibit a Statement of Explanation.
8. (a) State the average number of hours per week of free over-the-air digital video programming broadcast by the station on other than its main program stream.
- (b) State the average number of hours per week of Core Programming broadcast by the station on other than its main program stream. See 47 C.F.R. §73.671.
9. (a) Does the Licensee provide information identifying each Core Program aired on its station, including an indication of the target child audience, to publishers of program guides as required by 47 C.F.R. §73.673?

Identify publishers who were sent information in 9(a).

The CBS Television Network provides information identifying the core programs it supplies to stations affiliated with the Network, including an indication of the target child audience, to the following publishers of program guides: TV Guide, TV Data Technologies, Tribune Media Services, and Kidsnet Media Guide and News. In addition, WTVF also sends out information that identifies children's programming to the following publishers of program guides: Video Viewing, FYI Television, and Meevee.com.

10. Complete the following for each program that you aired during the past three months that meets the definition of Core Programming. Complete chart below for each Core Program.

[There are no digital core program reports.]

11. Does the Licensee certify that at least 50% of the Core Programming counted toward meeting the additional programming guideline (applied to free video programming aired on other than the main program stream) did not consist of program episodes that had already aired within the previous seven days either on the station's main program stream or on another of the station's free digital program streams?

N

If No, submit as an Exhibit a Statement of Explanation setting forth the number of repeats in excess of the repeat limit and the times and dates the episodes involved were aired.
